REMINDER

- During the summer season, before you go to a meeting that is not a regular one for you, it would be best to
- check on the website aa87.org in the Latest News section or with the helpline volunteer to make sure there is no change with the meeting schedule. Those services are constantly updated.
- If you have missed the cut-off date for this newsletter, please inform the A.S.O. of any changes as soon as possible so we can post the information and provide accurate information with our communication channels. Thank you.
